

Reg Braun: Discography

Compilation

Music of the North (Nov. 1998)

Hadley Records, HCD 1318

Compact CD LP

A compilation album showcasing new or recent musical talents from Northern New South Wales. The Beardy Brothers' track is "Another Night Like Tonight."

Other artists are: Shenanigans, Al's Party, Jane Lobban, John Patterson, D.J. Kontz, Wayne Rogers, Peter Schumacher, Old Mill Band, Fr. Gerard Hayes, Pam Spence with The Laurie Lewis Quintet, Jason Palmer and Bill Gleeson, Tamworth Regional Conservatorium Senior Performance Group, PLC Armidale Saxophone Ensemble, Narrabri Shire Band, Glenn Innes Arts Council Choir, and the Gunnedah Primary School Choir.

Music of the North
1998

Hadley
HCD 1324

THE BEARDY BROTHERS

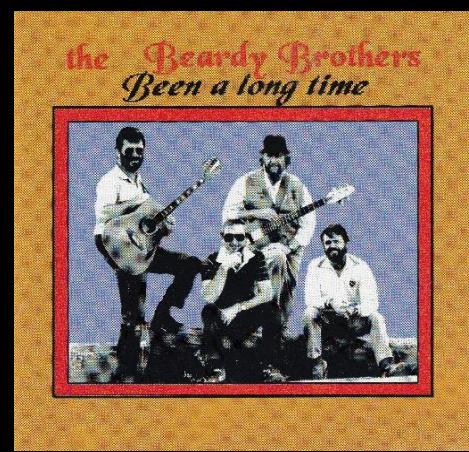

Been a Long Time (June 1999)

Custom recording [The Beardy Brothers] OTS 019

CD LP

Tracks: 1. "Isn't Anybody Lonesome Tonight" (P. Stanley/K. Taylor) 2. "Take That Girl Away" (P. Stanley) 3. "Time Sure Flew" (R. Braun) 4. "I Knew I Would Find You" (P. Stanley) 5. "Down But Not Out" (K. Cornish) 6. "Another Night Like Tonight" (R. Braun/K. Taylor) 7. "Ginger and Tina" (K. Cornish) 8. "The Russian" (P. Stanley) [instrumental] 9. "My Addiction" (K. Cornish) 10. "Do Right" (R. Braun) 11. "Rollin' Down the Road" (K. Cornish).

Personnel: Pete Stanley (guitars/lead and harmony vocals/keyboards) • Keith Cornish (guitars/lead and harmony vocals) • Reg Braun (bass/percussion/lead and harmony vocals, drums (#10)) • Gary Daly (drums).

Guest musicians: Stephen Tafra (acoustic guitar #2, and #8) • Melisa Cornish (flute #3) • Wayne Elliot (trumpet #6) • Colin Bale (keyboards #6, percussion #9) • Warwick Brown (percussion #7).

Recorded by: Recorded by Colin Bale at Oak Tree Studios, Armidale.

Mastered by: Barry Henninger (Sound View Studio)

Compilation

Together Together: Armidale Reconciliation Recording (1999)

Armidale City Council, in association with Arts North-West, ANTaR, and the New South Wales Government, Ministry of Arts.

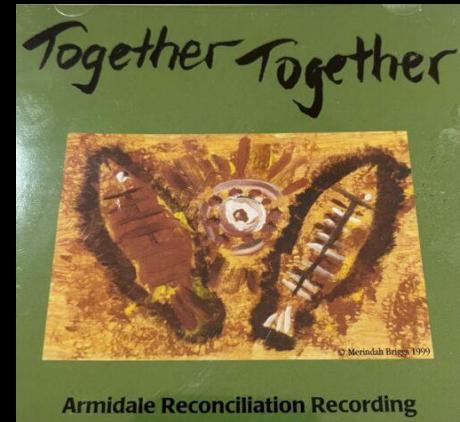

Compact CD LP

A compilation album showcasing original songs and music written by a wide cross section of people from within the Armidale community. The theme of reconciliation from personal perspectives is inspired by the 1998 Sea of Hands rally organised by the Armidale branch of ANTaR (Australians for Native Title and Reconciliation).

The song recorded by Keith Cornish and Reg Braun, under the name Cornish and Braun, is track 13. "The Colours of this Country."

Other artists are: The Tomnoddys, L.J. Hill, Mark Cooper and Little Treelos, students from Armidale High School, Dark Seed, Charlie Trindall, Echo, Kath Kelly, Well, Marie and Mary, Emily Jane, students from Minimbah School, Fay June Ball, Gumbangerri Sunrise Band, Maximum Tolerance, and Jaluka Rose Quinlan.

Recorded by: Colin Bale, Oak Tree Studios, Armidale (1, 10, 13); Al Heaney, Keystone Studio, Armidale (2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 11, 12, 14, 15, 16, 17); Ross McGregor, Axent Studios, Kogarah, NSW (6); and Paul Bunn, Lismore, NSW (9).

Armidale Reconciliation Recording